The most important part of the wedding day is often completely ignored until the very last minute.

Pastor Ken

Are you more interested in the celebration of the wedding, or the fact that you are marrying the person of your dreams? By the way many couples operate in their wedding timeline, one could assume the couple is more interested in the day than in the life they spend together.

We've arrived at the most critical part of your wedding day---the words and ceremony flow that will unite you in marriage. Why do so many put it off until the last minute, opting instead to spend more time sorting out table favors for the reception than preparing the vows that will shape the rest of their lives together?

Don't let that be you! We've provided an immense resource that will ensure you have the best ceremony that reflects your approach to your wedding and marriage. Let's dig in and prepare now to make memories later.

Elopement Ceremony

THE ESSENTIAL MARRIAGE VERBIAGE

OPENING WORDS

The step which you are about to take is the most important into which human beings can come. It is a union of two people founded upon mutual respect and affection. Your lives will change, your responsibilities will increase, but your joy will be multiplied if you are sincere and earnest with your pledge to one another.

EXCHANGE OF VOWS

Groom, will you have this woman to be your wedded wife, to love her, comfort her, honor and keep her, and forsaking all others, keep you only unto her, for so long as you both shall live?

Bride, will you have this man to be your wedded husband, to love him, comfort him, honor and keep him, and forsaking all others, keep you only unto him, so long as you both shall live?

Take hands and repeat after me: I, Groom, take you, Bride, to be my wedded wife, to have and to hold, for better for worse, for richer for poorer, to love and to cherish, from this day forward.

I, Bride, take you, Groom, to be my wedded husband, to have and to hold, for better for worse, for richer for poorer, to love and to cherish, from this day forward.

RING EXCHANGE

Do you have a ring for the bride? Please place the ring on the bride's finger and say: With this ring, I thee wed.

Is there a ring for the groom? Please place the ring on the groom's finger and say: With this ring I thee wed.

Let these rings be given and received as a token of your affection, sincerity and fidelity to one another.

PRONOUNCEMENT

In as much as Bride and Groom have consented together in wedlock and have witnessed the same before this company, and pledged their vows to each other, by the authority vested in me by the State of Maryland, I now pronounce you husband and wife. (You may now kiss .)

This ceremony is our quickest option for satisfying the legal verbiage for marriage. Ideal for couples eloping, or couples simply desiring the shortest possible ceremony.
